MAYOR HICKENLOOPER ENDORSES ISMAEL GARCIA FOR DPS BOARD

Denver, CO – Denver Mayor John Hickenlooper has endorsed Ismael Garcia in his campaign for Denver Public School Board. Garcia, who is running for District 2, which comprises Southwest Denver, is currently the coordinator for the Student Leadership Program for Denver Community College, has three children attending Denver public schools, and was one of the founding board members of West Denver Prep, one of the top performing schools in the entire state.

Mayor Hickenlooper released the following statement:

“In the interest of every student in Denver, I am endorsing Ismael Garcia for the Board’s District 2 seat. His depth of experience in public education, not only in Denver, but at the higher level, will serve to strengthen the already excellent leadership of our district. His commitment to the Denver Plan as well as his support of new and innovative curriculum and instruction will help continue the reforms of the last few years that are already showing success. I look forward to working with Denver Public Schools and with Ismael to help achieve his goal of seeing every student in Southwest Denver have the option of a world-class education in their neighborhood, at all levels.”
